

Edinburgh, Scotland

Opportunity and Appeal

513,210 people

£29,456 annual income per resident

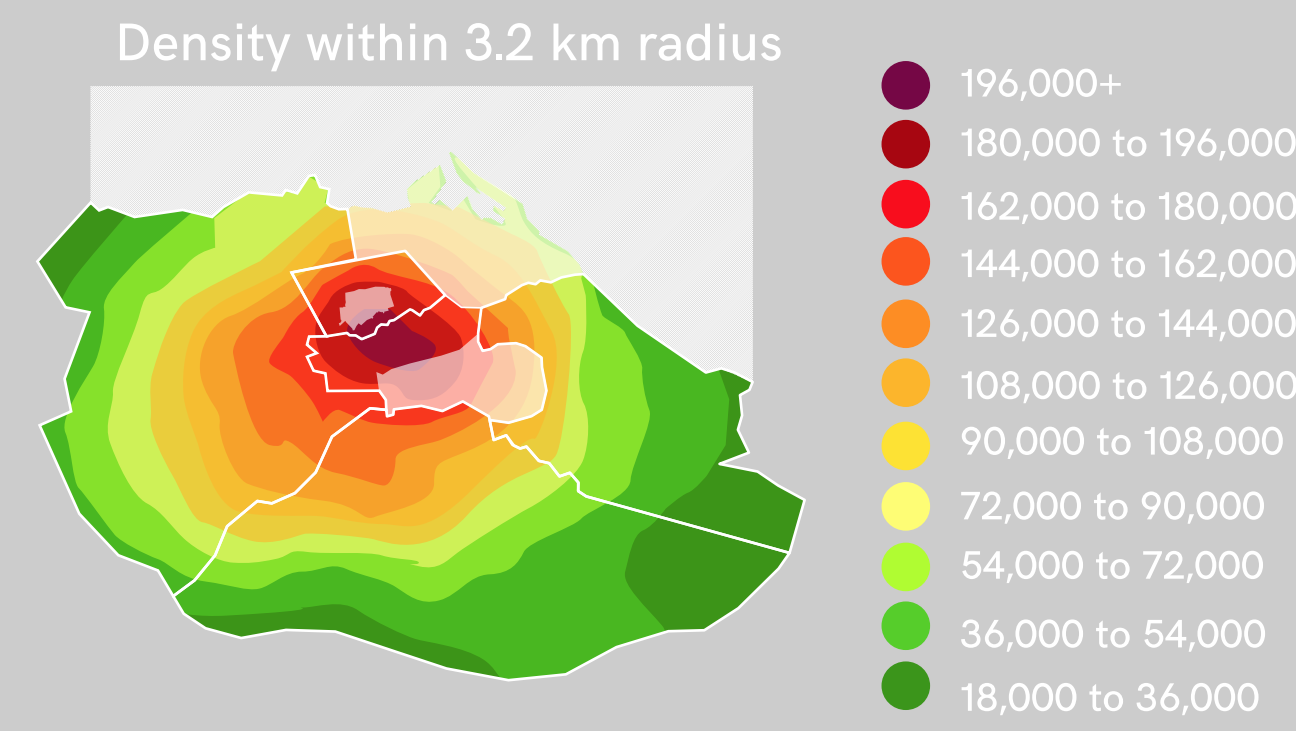

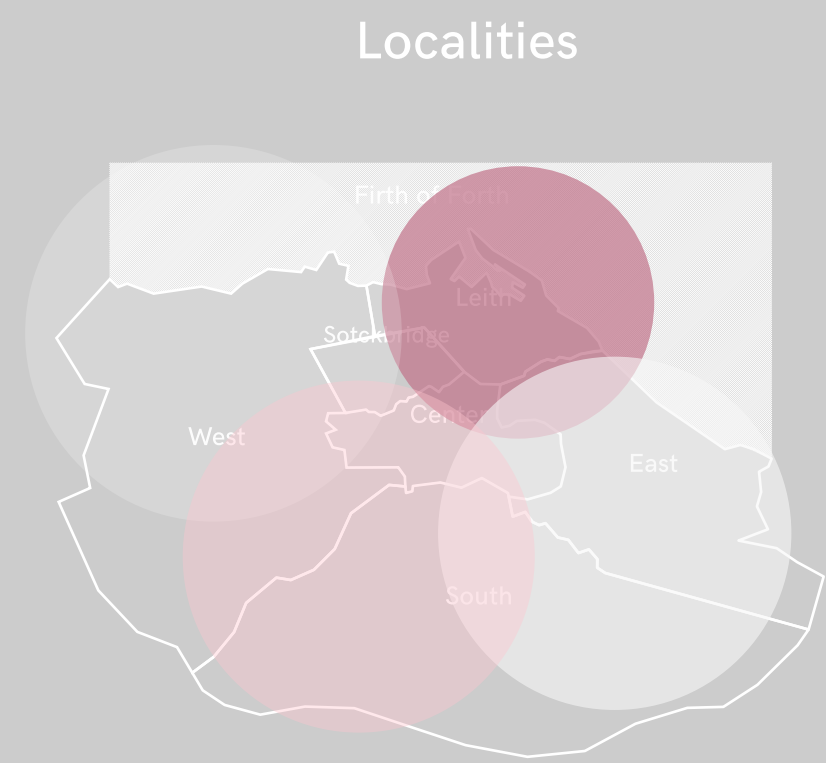

72.8% employed residents aged 16-64

3.85 million tourists per year

75,696 non-UK residents

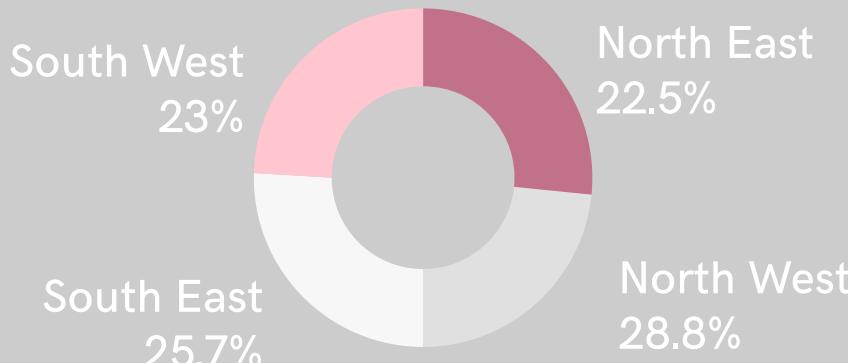

145th out of 538 rank in cost of living

4 universities

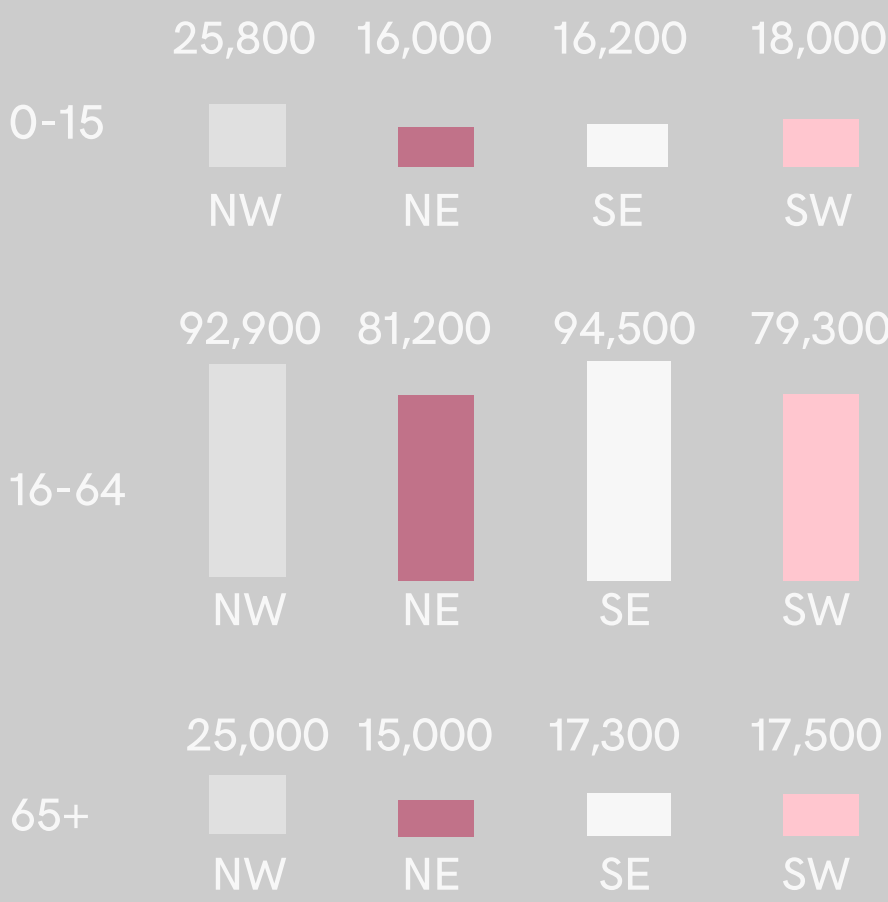

Population

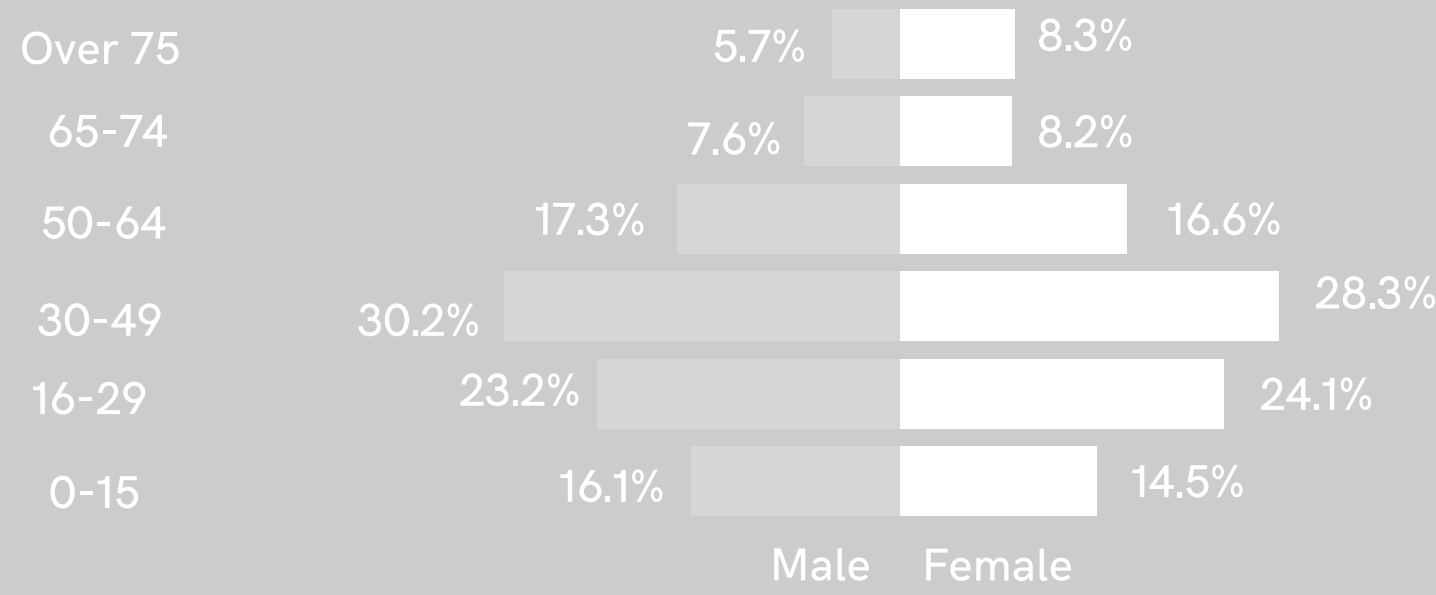

By Locality

Age Groups by Locality

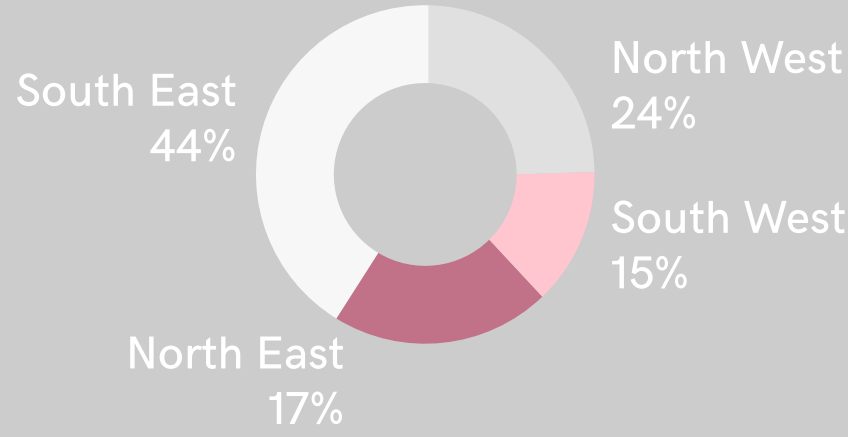

By Gender

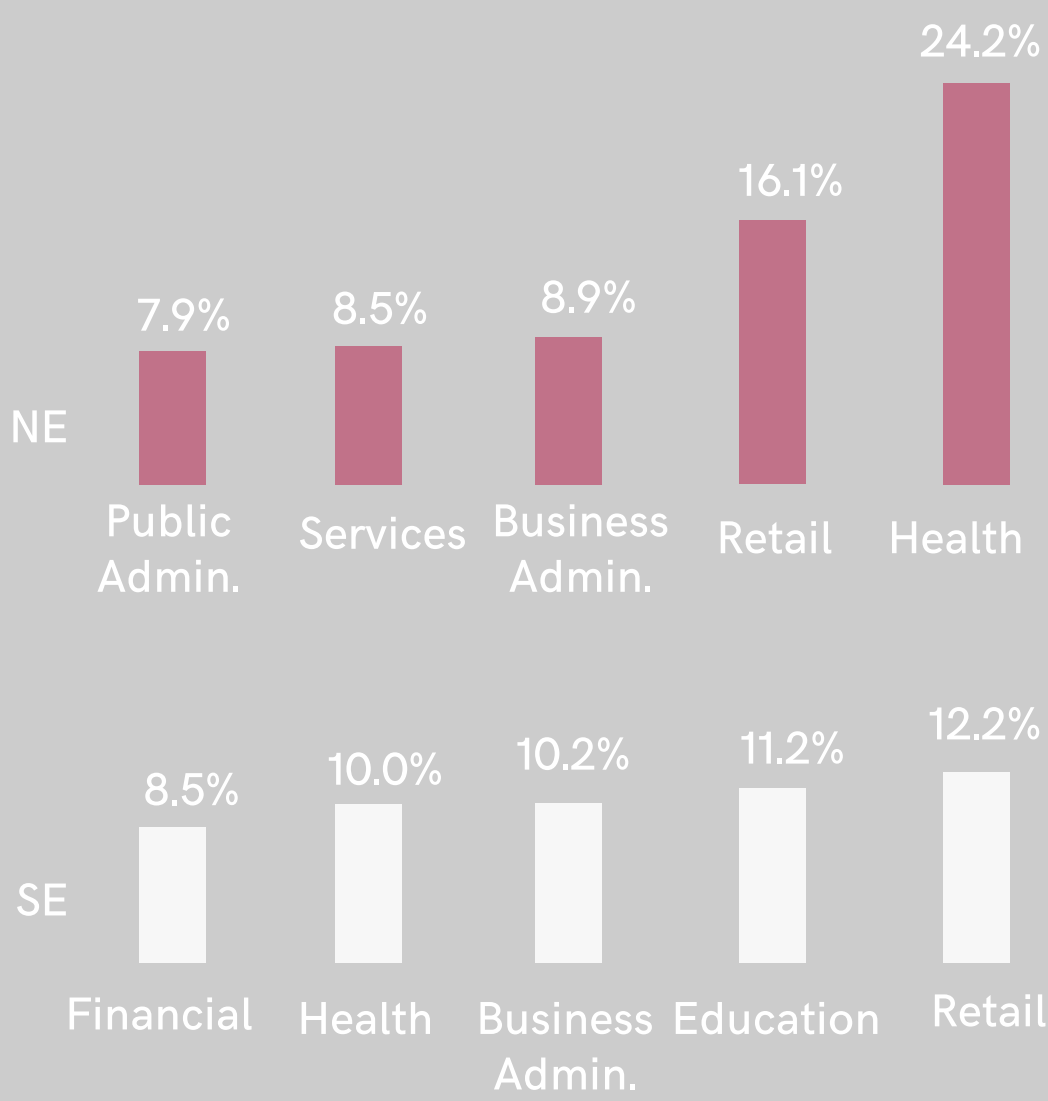

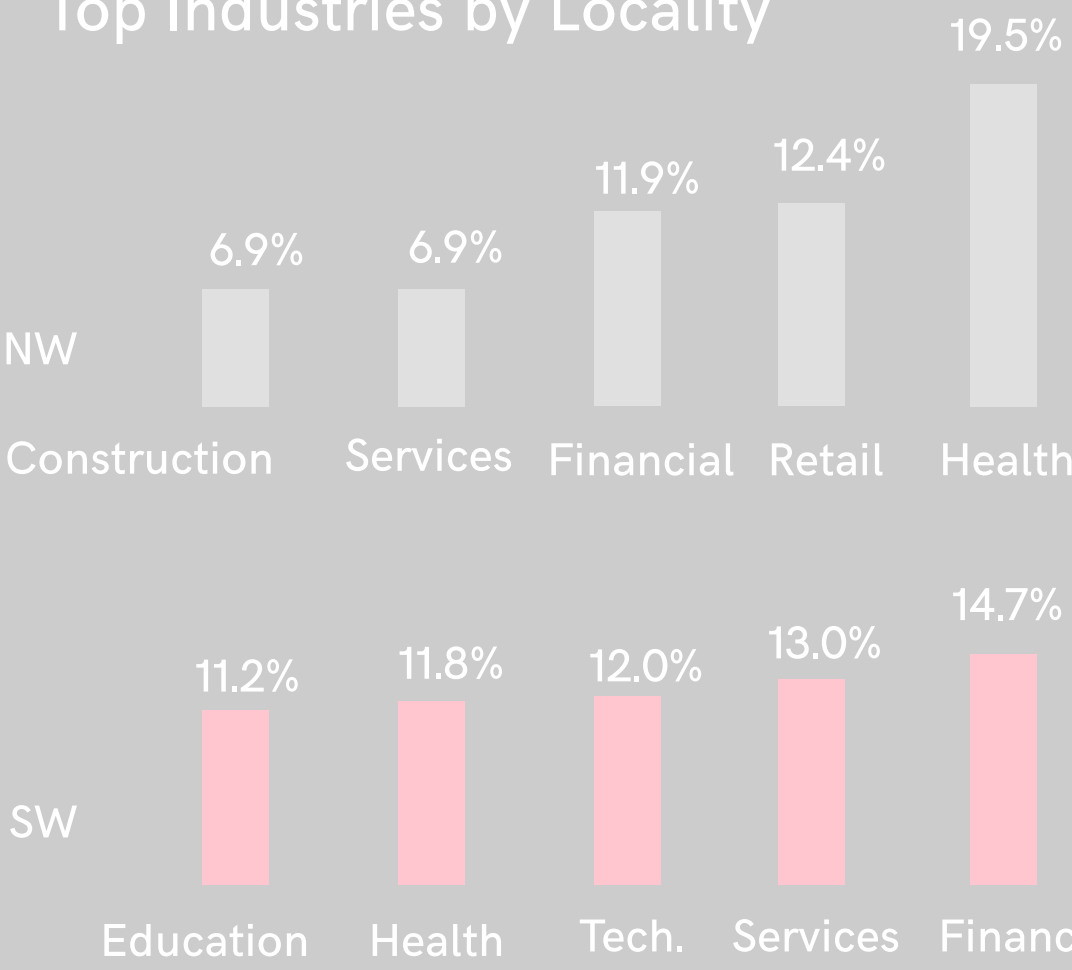

Employment

By Locality

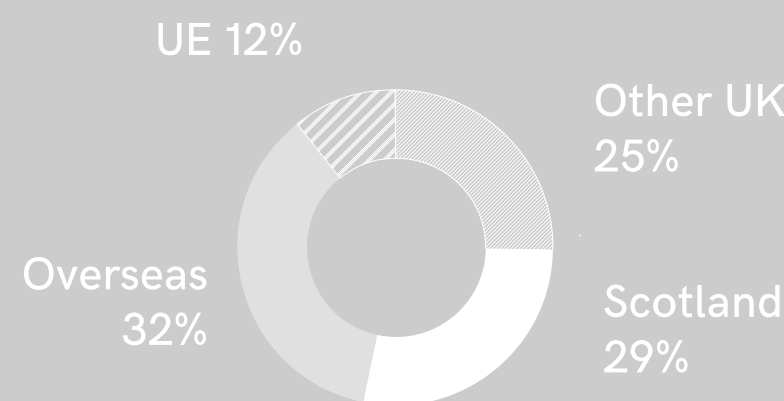

Top Industries by Locality

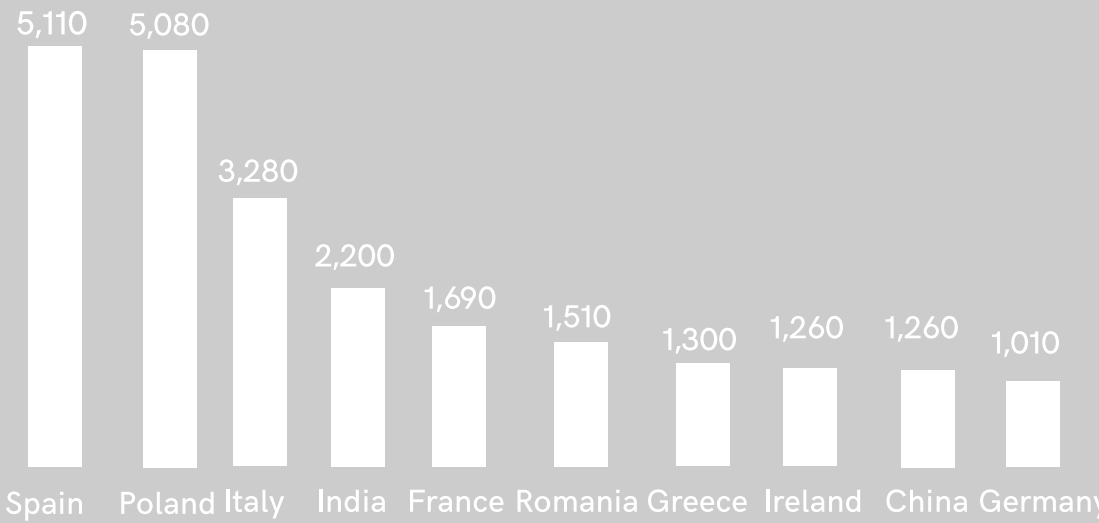

Rate

University Students Nationalities

Top Ten Overseas Workers Nationalities

Stockbridge

£800 average monthly rent
200'x400' average block dimension

Northwest of the castle, Stockbridge was once a village, and it still rather feels like a small town near the heart of the city, with its own tight-knit community.

Aging Buildings

Eyes on the Streets

Old Town

£1,000 average monthly rent
500'x400' average block dimension

The Old Town is Edinburgh's historic heart. It is the most commercial and touristic neighborhood of the city.

Mixed Use

Pedestrian Streets

Leith

180'x200' average block dimension
£750 average monthly rent
50,030 people

The Port of Leith lies only a couple of kilometers north of Princes Street and is the city's major harbor, opening onto the Firth of Forth.

Day and Night Activity