Bonnie MacEwan and Mira Geffner, The Committee on Institutional Cooperation Electronic Journals Collection (CIC-EJC): A New Model for Library Management of Scholarly Journals Published on the Internet

The member libraries of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) are building the CIC Electronic Journals Collection (CIC-EJC), a World-Wide Web resource that will be the largest fully managed collection of electronic journals available on the Internet. The CIC-EJC directly addresses the growing need for managed, networked information tools and resources. This comprehensive management role includes the selection, cataloging, provision, and preservation of electronic journals. This paper outlines the history and development of the CIC-EJC, and it concludes with a discussion on the future of this resource as a component of electronic librarianship.
