Electronic Publishing on Networks: Part II of a Selective Bibliography

By Charles W. Bailey, Jr. (pp. 5-14)

To retrieve this file: GET BAILEY PRV5N2 F=MAIL

This bibliography presents selected works, published between 1992 and the present, that are useful in understanding network-based electronic publishing. Key sources that deal with related topics, such as digital libraries, intellectual property rights, the NII and the NREN, and network software tools, are also included. It does not provide detailed coverage of the large body of literature that deals with general electronic publishing topics.
